

Why Healthcare in the United States Needs Reform

Chris Dayal

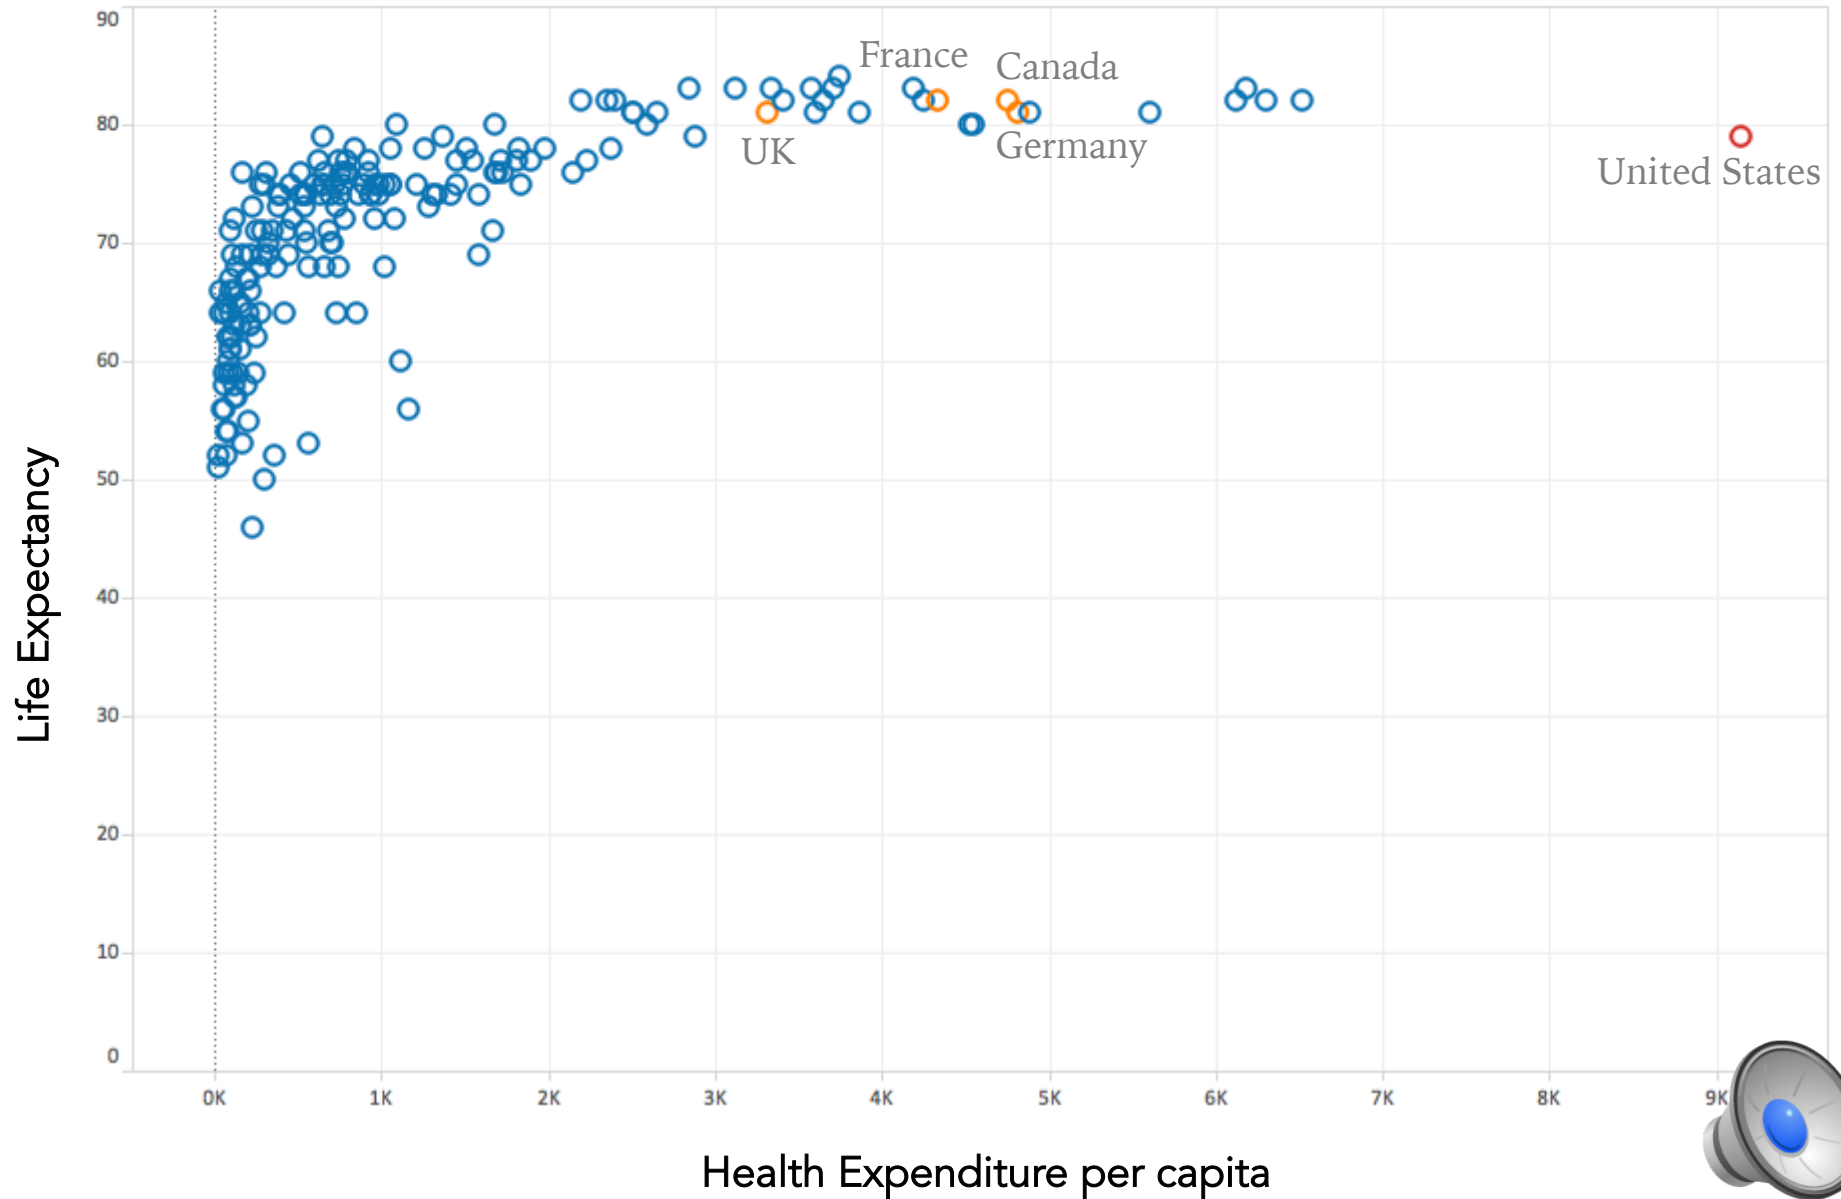

Julia Dayal

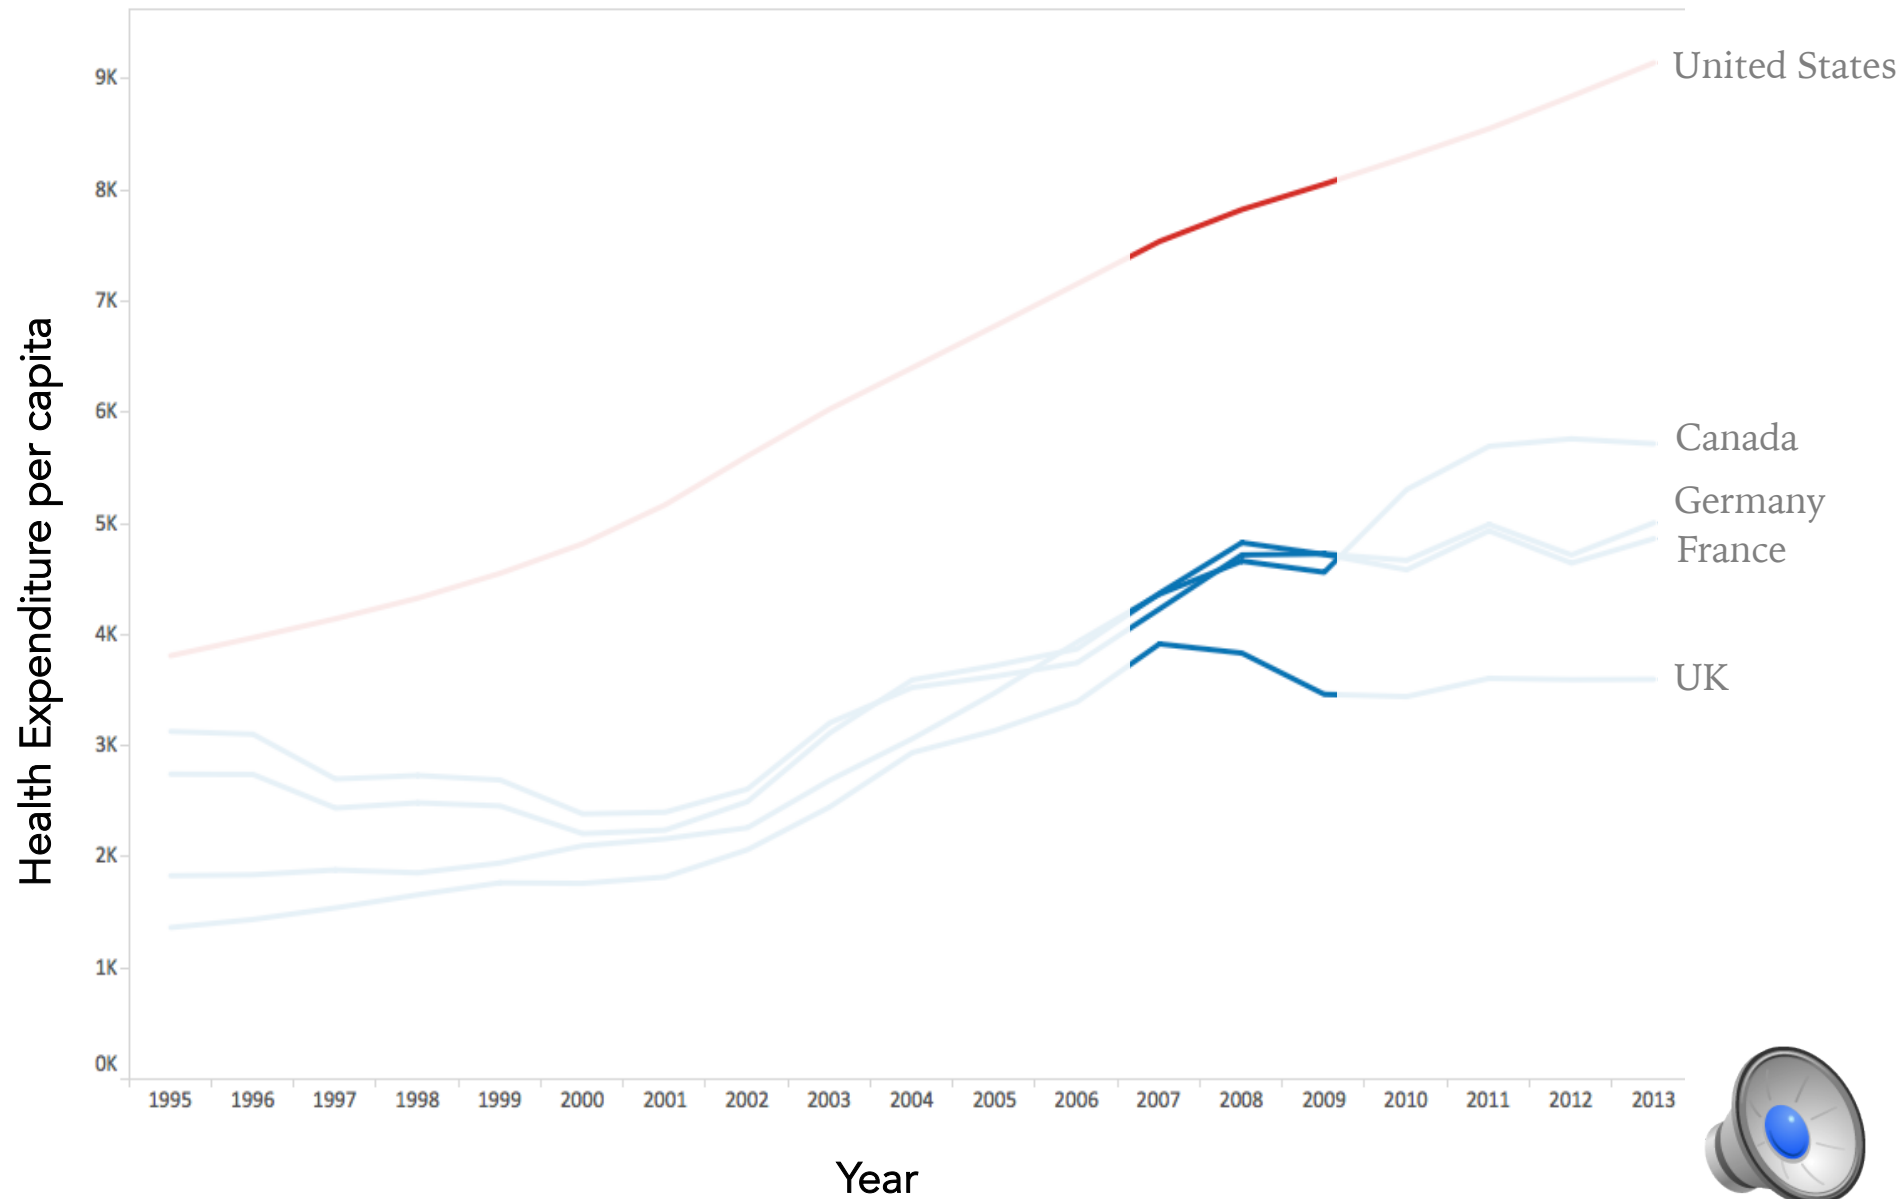

↑ Health Expenditure = ↑ Life Expectancy

The US is an Outlier

Health Expenditure

Indicators

Lowest Life Expectancy

Highest Child Mortality

Health Systems

Beveridge

Bismarck

National Health Insurance

Provider

Payer

Access

Health Systems

Provider

United Kingdom

Public

France/Germany

Private

Canada

Private

Payer

Taxes

Social Insurance

Government Insurance

Access

Universal

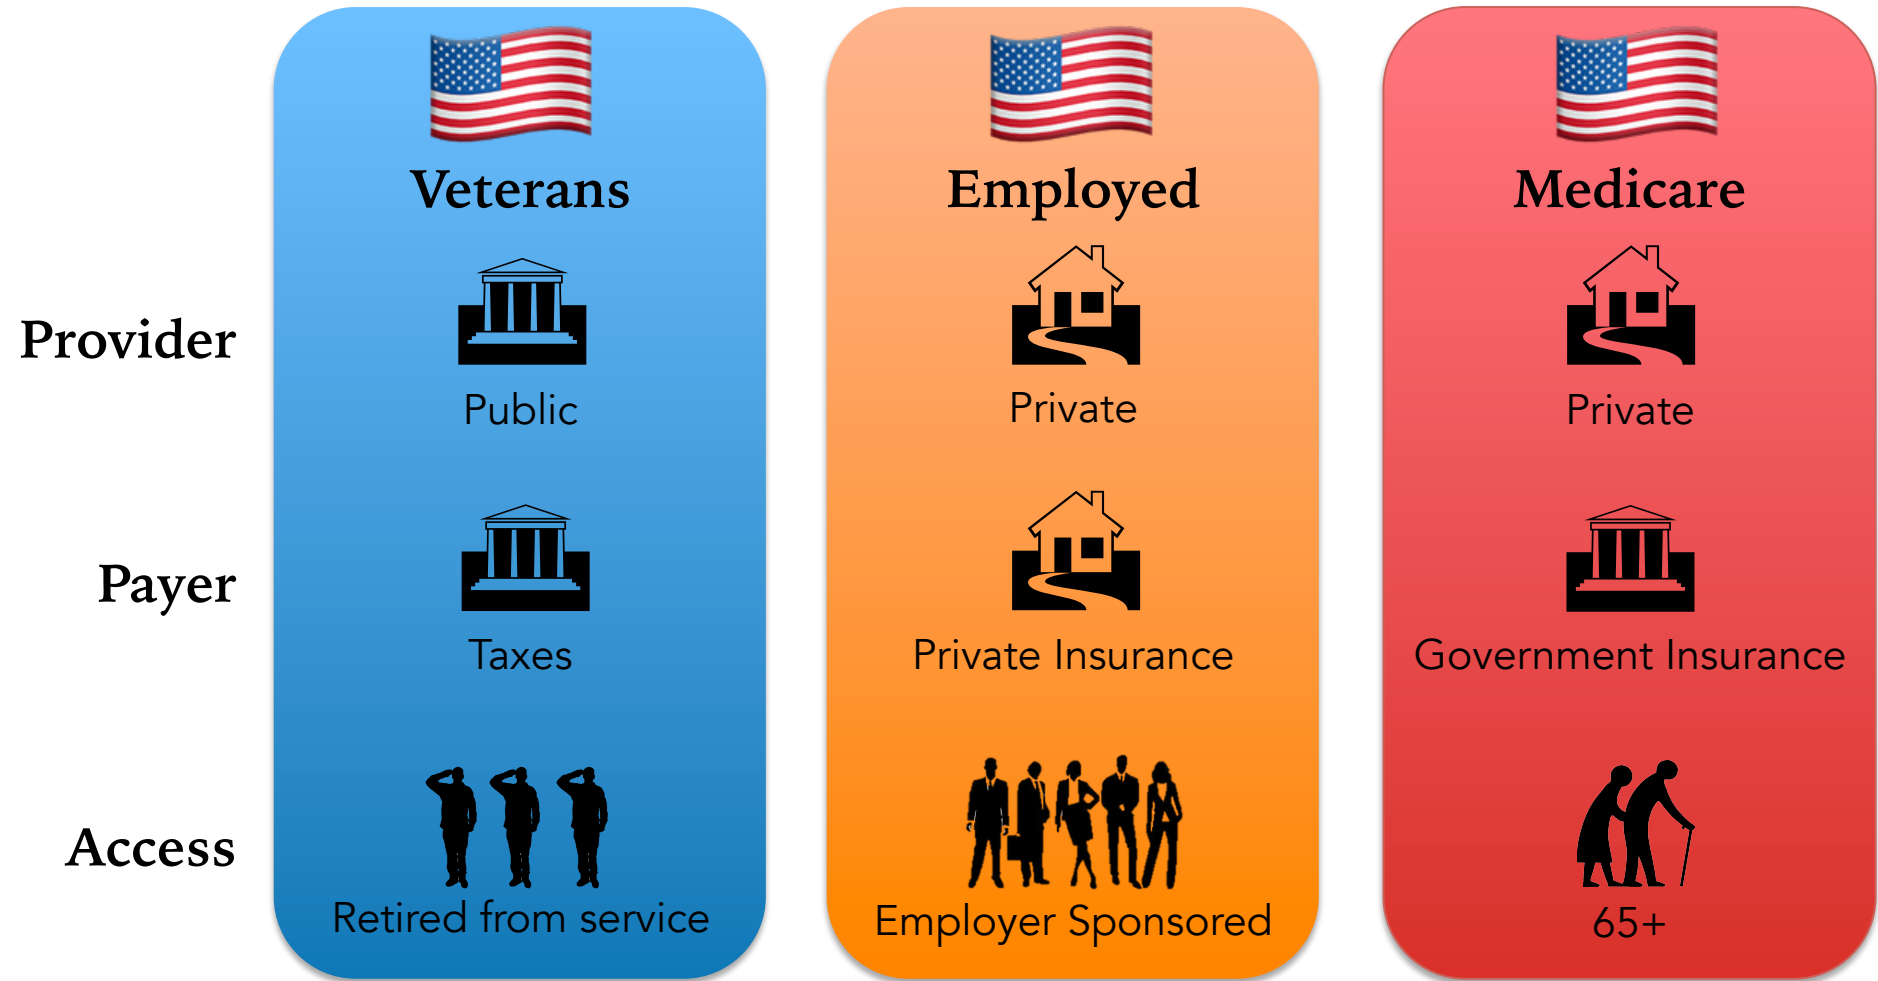

Universal

Universal

United States

Uninsured (15%) = Out of Pocket

Summary

The US is an outlier

High health expenditure not paying off

Life Expectancy

Child Mortality

Our healthcare system is a hodgepodge of different systems making coordination between provider, payer, and patient inefficient and expensive

